

WITHDRAWAL FORM

I am withdrawing from North Wall Schools on                     Date of withdrawal                    . However, I understand that if I decide to re-enroll, there may not be a place in my child's classroom and new registration fees may apply.

                    Parent's Name, please print                                              Child's Name                                              Child's Class                    

  Parent's Signature          Date  

Enrollment deposit is refunded upon 30 days' notice of withdrawal, and we will make every effort to secure a new spot for your child. However, the full month's tuition payment is charged for the month of withdrawal. If you wish to withdraw your child in mid-month, you will not receive a tuition invoice for the following month. If, and when you decide to re-enroll, we will make every effort to secure a new spot for your child.
